CODE NO. 17 – COMPLIANCE

The Board of Directors of the Company is committed to high standards of corporate governance, which it considers are critical to business integrity and to maintaining clients' trust in the Company. The Company expects all its members to comply with its policies, directions and the content of this Code with honesty, integrity and fairness. All members and distributors are required to comply with all of the applicable laws, rules and regulations of the Philippines and other countries or jurisdictions, in which the Company conducts its business. Local laws may in some instances be less restrictive than the principles set forth in this Code. In those situations, members and distributors should comply with the Code, even if the conduct would otherwise be legal under applicable local laws. On the other hand, if local laws are more restrictive

Unlimited Network of Opportunity International Corporation
West Insula Building, UNO Headquarters, Quezon City

than the Code, Covered Persons should comply with applicable local laws. Further, any provision of this Code that is contrary to law in a particular jurisdiction will have no force or effect in that jurisdiction solely with respect to such provision(s), although this Code (including any such provision) will remain applicable in all other jurisdictions

Violation of this Code shall be dealt severely, to which the Company may in its sole and absolute discretion impose appropriate and necessary actions to non-compliant members.

Important Notes:

- The Company may in its sole and absolute discretion take whatever actions or measures it deems necessary and appropriate, including but not limited to, suspension, forfeiture of earnings, monetary fines, obligation to reimburse UNO's legal fees, permanent loss of lineage or perpetual deactivation of membership
- The Company has the sole and absolute discretion to determine the appropriate penalty/sanction based on the severity of the violation and damage that resulted or could result from the action/s made.
- The Company has the right to impose a heavier penalty depending on the gravity of the violation/s.
- UNO may hold the upline/s of the violator responsible for violations of these Ethical Standards if investigations find they have knowledge of them or were a party to them.
- The Company reserves the right to amend, suspend in whole or in part the implementation of this policy/guidelines.
- If a member wishes to appeal a decision reached by UNO in cases concerning suspension, monetary sanctions, or termination of Membership, the member has 10 days from the date of receiving written notification from UNO advising of the decision, to submit additional information or facts they believe should be considered. If the request for appeal is not received within the allotted period of time, the request will be denied. Likewise, UNO will advise the Member in writing of the results of his appeal if the request has been submitted within the allotted time.

In order to protect the goodwill and reputation of UNO and its Members, UNO urges its members to promptly and properly advise the Ethics Department of UNO of violations of the Distributors' Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards by completing the Complaint Form which can be obtained from below contact person and number:
